

Embodied Spirit of Venus Rising Presents:

Freedom! A Shamanic Breathwork Weekend with Star Wolf and Brad Collins

Saturday, June 27 9:30am – 7pm

Sunday, June 28 10am – 1pm

Let Freedom Ring from every mountain top and valley and let it begin from within our hearts.

Freedom from fear and insecurity is an inside job.
No one can make us feel safe or rescue us from ourselves and our journey in life.

The true freedom we are all seeking is to live our lives
authentically with full empowerment and joy.
Now is the time to reclaim our freedom, to follow our bliss and become the change we wish to see in the world.

Join us on this amazing journey as we enter into the Shamanic Breathwork Process and Discover the Freedom that is waiting for us, Just a Breath Away!

Donation: $200

Includes Saturday lunch and snacks

Linda Star Wolf is the creator of the Shamanic Breathwork Process™, a highly transformative shamanic-psycho-spiritual tool which integrates ancient wisdom, and shamanic methods with dynamic breathwork processing and cutting edge consciousness to assist people in awakening their own inner Shamanic Spirit. She is first and foremost a shamanic free spirit and channel dedicated to living and teaching shamanic consciousness in her every day life. Star Wolf has spent her life walking the path of direct experience and staying open to her own inner healer and dynamic spiral path of ever renewing transformation. For more than 25 years, she has facilitated healing, transformational journeys in a wide variety of arenas including hundreds of workshops across the US and abroad. She has worked with mental health centers, addiction treatment facilities, women's issues circles, a variety of breathwork groups and shamanic minister trainings, to name a few. She is a nationally certified addictions counselor, Shamanic Reiki Master, who also holds a Doctorate of Ministry in Shamanic-Psycho-Spiritual Studies. Star Wolf has written numerous articles and appeared on a wide variety of radio talk shows over the past few years. The Blue Star Mysteries are a powerful guiding force for Star Wolf as she daily remembers how this is her true lineage and that this energy has been weaving its magic through her life for as long as she can remember. Her book, Shamanic Mysteries of Egypt: Awakening the Healing Power of the Heart, co-authored with Nicki Scully, was published by Inner Traditions in May, 2007. Star Wolf also channeled and co-wrote an oracle deck and companion book, The Anubis Oracle: A Journey into the Shamanic Mysteries of Egypt, with Nicki Scully, published by Inner Traditions in September of 2008. She is currently working on her new book about the Shamanic Breathwork™ Process and co authoring a book on Shamanic Egyptian Astrology, with Ruby Falconer to be released later on this year

Brad Collins has been a pioneer in planetary transformation for more than three decades. He, along with Star Wolf, is the Co Director of the Venus Rising Institute for Shamanic Healing Arts and the Co Founder of the Isis Cove Retreat Center and Shamanic Spiritual Community in the magical, blue mountains of western North Carolina. He is the founder of the Shamanic Priest Process, and the Co Founder of the Shamanic Healing Initiatory Process (SHIP), a certified Shamanic Minister/ Pastoral Counselor and a Shamanic Breathwork™ Teacher, Trainer and Facilitator. Brad has a degree in Environmental Science and Education. His spiritual journey has led him through many personal as well as transpersonal experiences. Brad has worked with various Jungian psychoanalysts and, as a result, has developed an effective method of personal dream analysis. He has participated in men's workshops for more than 20 years, he owned and personally managed natural food stores, he has been involved with 12 step recovery programs for more than 23 years, and he has successfully raised four children, all of whom are now adults following their own hearts' path. Brad's passion is to assist others in releasing self-defeating behavior patterns. His most recent creation is the Shamanic Initiatory Priest Process (SIPP). SIPP is a highly experiential and transformative men's initiatory process that was born out of a powerful vision he received during a life changing breathwork journey in 1994. It took 12 years of integration, reflection and refinement before Brad was ready to share these mystery teachings with others. Brad provides a safe and sacred space for those seeking his counsel. He offers everyone he works with - both men and women - loving kindness and acceptance. Brad believes the shaman lives within each of us and lovingly holds that vision for those he serves.

Venus Rising Institute for Shamanic Healing Arts is a 501c(3) non-profit organization dedicated to bringing this unique work into the world to help shape-shift the old outgrown paradigms into the emerging consciousness shift taking place at this time upon our planet.
